

COVID 19 – UPDATE - May 25 2020

We hope this short update finds everyone staying safe and living their best life possible during all this.

Frank and I just wanted to give a few links to answer some of the questions we have been getting.

We are still keeping everyone informed on our website under the news tab and on our social media pages. We still have not had any direction as to when we will be able to open fully and rent cabins. If your dates are fast approaching, we encourage you to contact us to make other date choices if we haven't already contacted you. Anyone who would have to use the border crossing, if your dates are before June 21, we ask that you contact us as soon as you can to make other date choices as soon as possible.

Camping on crown land is still prohibited
